Upper French Broad River Festival Seeking Vendors and Exhibitors

The Transylvania French Broad Stewards, with our partners Conserving Carolina, Headwaters Outfitters, and the Town of Rosman, invite organizations, businesses, artists and crafters to take part in our fourth annual Upper French Broad Riverfest. The Stewards are a voluntary local citizens group dedicated to promoting the natural and economic vitality of the Upper French Broad River. The festival is a day of free, family-friendly, river-focused activities that will encourage Transylvania citizens and visitors to protect and enjoy our beautiful river. Photos and information about previous Riverfest events and copies of this registration are online at transylvaniafrenchbroadstewards.

The charge to reserve booth space is $10. We encourage you to bring fun activities and interactive displays to share with kids and families. We will also be having a scavenger hunt that vendors and exhibitors can join in if they wish. Ask us if you need assistance with an activity from our volunteers.

Set up will be 9:00 – 9:30 am, and take-down between 3:30-4:00 pm. Further details will be provided. Please plan to furnish your own tent/canopy if desired.
